

LOCAL

Beautiful fair weather again.

The crowd in town on saturday was larger than usual, but everything passed off quietly.

A number of sharpers, selling their articles and taking in the people, run a brisk business on saturday.

A few more school days and then comes the Christmas fun for the boys and girls.

The Legislature appropriates $15,000 of the fund in the Treasury for the Teachers Normal Institute.

We saw Representative Summers and Senator Izlar in town on saturday.

Twenty thousand more salmon go into the North and South Edisto this week from the North Carolina hatchery.

Thank to Mr. Geo. E. Bolen, of the Fork, for a fine mess of ruta bagas. Such attentions are appreciated.

The Georgia Home Insurance Company, of which Mr. Kirk Robinson is agent, has contributed $10 to the success of the Firemen's Fair.

Thanks to Messrs. Bull & Scoville Agents N. Y. Underwriters for a handsome calendar which we find of great convenience in our office.

Don't forget the Santa Claus Express. Goods delivered for only 5 cents. Now is your chance, young and old, friends and sweethearts.

We were pleased with a call from Mr. D. J. Avinger, of Vances Town ship while on his way to Charleston for supplies for his excellent store.

Christmas trees are now the go. We hear of one at Jamison, one at Walnut Grove and one in our town by the Episcopalians.

Old Santa Claus has been absent for a year. On Friday night 8 o'clock there will be a pleasant family reunion.

Conference meets next week. Rev. O. A. Darby has made so many friends in this community that it is hoped he may be returned.

The Patrons of Husbandry met in Charleston in Annual Session on Tuesday under favorable auspices and with encouraging delegations.

The musical treat given by the Edisto Band at the Elliott supper is highly appreciated. It contributed largely to the success of the evening.

In mentioning the list of Vice Presidents of the Agricultural Society last week, we should have said Major J. J. Salley, instead of Col. D. R. Barton.

Cocoa-Nuts at 60 and 75 cents per dozen; Oranges at 40 and 45 cents per dozen; Figs at 15 and 20 cents per pound; Dates 20 cents per pound only at Jos. Eros Confectionery.

Marshal George approached Messrs. F. S. DeTreville and W. J. DeTreville Jr. yesterday for arrest on political charges. They went to the U. S. Marshal's office and gave the necessary bond.

The old friends and customers will find Mr. D. W. Robinson at his old stand always ready to do work in his line on the latest styles and on the most reasonable terms. Don't forget to call on him.

We have on our table quite a curiosity in the form of a ground nut, with a perfect shell growing inside of the shell of another ground nut. It was sent to us by Mr. A. H. Bradham, of Goodby's.

Mr. J. P. Fournes has presented us with a sweet potato, the St. Domingo or Queen of the South variety, grown on his farm without manure, which weighs 7 1/2 pounds. Who can beat it?

Owing to the bad weather, Prof. Van Orsdell has been compelled to remain here until the first of January. All those wishing pictures will do well to call on him immediately as he will leave on the 1st.

We understand that Rev. Perry has been called to the pastorate of the Baptist Church in our town. He is said to be a young preacher of considerable promise, and a gentleman of culture. We wish him success in his new field.

We regret to hear that a little son of Mr. B. P. Izlar is quite ill.

Mr. M. J. Jenkins and Mr. D. W. Crook represent Orangeburg in the meeting of the Patrons of Husbandry in Charleston.

The re-election of Judge Kershaw as Judge of the Fifth Circuit reflects credit upon our State. He is a just Judge and a good citizen.

Our farmers have suffered no little in gathering their crops from the wet weather. A great deal of cotton is yet in the field.

A serious accident occurred on the N. E. R. R. on Wednesday night, two trains running into each other three miles from Charleston, a complete wreck was the result.

Now is the time to look around for your Christmas fixings, and while doing so don't forget to call in at Mr. P. W. Bull's who has everything the heart could wish. In fact he keeps everything that one needs to get up a first-class Christmas dinner. Don't forget the place.

The managers at Bookharts Poll, Messrs. J. K. Irick, D. A. Irick and J. B. Eberidge, and also the managers at Foggles, Messrs. Jas. H. Shiner, T. N. Slauson and Jas. W. Mack have been arrested as a part of the battle of E. W. M. Mackay for Congress.

The bonds of the newly elected Clerk of Court, Sheriff, Judge of Probate, School Commissioner and Coroner were passed upon favorably by the County Commissioners on Saturday, and these officials will, doubtless, enter upon their duties this week.

It was our duty to call upon Attorney General Youmans in Columbia in reference to the County Officials bonds, and it gives us pleasure to express our high appreciation of the courtesy, kindness and spirit of accommodation of this excellent officer.

No matter how fine the clothes you have on you still need one thing to complete your dress and that is a fine hat or shoe, and the place to get either of the above and save money is at P. A. Letvendahl, who is prepared to put up work at the shortest notice and on the most reasonable terms.

We refer our readers to the programme of the Fair, a great fun (and profit) for every evening. Gentlemen are particularly invited for Wednesday evening, as at that time the ladies will show them a great deal of attention. This is the evening for universal suffrage and "Woman's Rights." All are invited to come.

Mr. T. S. McGrew, an aged citizen of Lower St. Matthews, died of heart disease last week. His illegal arrest and harsh treatment by so-called U. S. Marshall's on election day, will be remembered by the people, and we hope will not pass unpunished. Our sympathies are with the bereaved family.

Terrible attack—No more deadly foe can possibly attack the human being than Bilious Fever. This is caused by bile not being properly distributed and carried off in consequence of a deranged state of the liver. To cure and prevent these attacks take no medicine, but use Dr. Flogg's Improved Liver and Stomach Pad.

The sensation of the week, has been Prof. Tremaine's exhibition of sun pictures in Way's Hall. It was, in fact, a grand tour of the world. Each night added to the interest, and all who went out were well repaid in instruction and entertainment. There is everything in the exhibition to gratify the most cultured taste, and we are glad to see that it was appreciated by our community. There are two more nights, and we bespeak for the Professor a continued and increased patronage which he richly deserves.

On Monday night, about 12 o'clock, the alarm of fire was sounded. It proved to be a kitchen on the premises of Mrs. D. E. Glover. The building was completely destroyed but the progress of the fire was arrested, the wind being high, by the promptness of the Fire Department. The Elliotts being early on the ground, did much good with their hooks and ladders, and buckets. Uncle Joe was delayed in throwing water in consequence of an unfortunate accident having been upset on the way in taking the pavement to avoid the almost impassable streets.

A case of intimidation of colored Democrats was tried before Trial Justice Glover on Monday. Bill Shuler, a colored man, had been threatened before the election that if he voted the Democratic ticket he would be put in a bag and otherwise abused. After the election the threatening parties, true to their word, approached the house of Shuler for the purpose of intimidation and commenced operations. M. I. Brown and A. C. Dibble appeared for the prosecution, and Abial Lathrop for the defence. The result of the argument was that the case was not sent up to the higher court. We regret the effects of this result, as every case of intimidation should be severely punished, as a lesson to all who indulge in such interference with the rights of freemen.

The Committee of the Young America's Fair are in receipt of the following contributions in addition to former acknowledgments: New York—John A. Russ, $5. Berlioz & Strauss, Jewelry. Bamberg, Hill & Co., Parisian Novelties.

Chas. D. Farrer, $20. E. Dittman, $5. Butler, Clapp & Co., $5. Germania, Trs & Co., $10. Mrs. M. Green, Embroidered Table Cover.

Columbia—W. C. Fisher, sundries. Toys, toys, to s at Dr. Duke's.

Now as the holidays are approaching and everybody will be looking out for a handsome present for some relative, friend, or sweetheart, we would advise them to call in at Dr. Wannamaker and examine his large and handsome stock of fancy goods just suited for the above purpose. Prices reasonable.

A visit to Kortjohn's cheap cash store at this time is really instructive and remunerative. One has no idea how many bargains are to be had until they go and see for themselves. One pleasing feature in this establishment is that they are not pulled up by their success, but every one is willing and anxious to show you around and sell to you low down for cash, for you must remember that the secret of Kortjohn's success has been the cash trade. He makes no exceptions, keeps no slate, no memorandums in the cash drawer, but gives sledge hammer bargains in exchange for the American dollar. With old experienced buyers of rare judgment, pluck, audacity and ability, leaving unlimited command of that nothing that will buy the world, they are able to watch and take advantage of these splendid chances and offer to their customers who are not afraid of the insane cry of auction goods, Jobs, leaders and specialties well calculated to unsettle the brain of the buyer on time at fifty per cent, on goods, interest added. It injures no fabric to drive it through the giant engines of U. S. Marshall and assignee, the sheriff and the auction marts of the city. It only changes the price from a very high to a very low figure. The stock of this store has been largely replenished during the week and they are now prepared to meet demands of their many friends. In addition to the heavy stock, they are now opening the following, which persons in the country will do well to notice:

Silver plated table and teaspoons, knives and forks, window shades, ladies dress goods, ladies misses and childrens white and colored hose, gents half hose, ladies and gents silk handkerchiefs, looking glasses from 10 cents to $25, ladies balmoral skirts, ladies misses and gents shoes and boots, glass sets, shirts, tumblers, goblets, pictures, tobacco, candy, hams, &c., &c. Give him a call and see if what we have said is not the truth.

Another large lot of parlor and bracket lamps of the latest designs, with or without illuminators, just received, direct from the manufactory, at astonishingly low prices at J. I. Sorretroue's.

Go to Prof. Van Orsdell and have your pictures taken before it is too late. He leaves on the first of January. Call early and avoid the rush. Also the frames and mouldings can be found at his gallery. Don't put off to the last week.

To a shooting—Taking pills and potions to the shooting with the eyes shut. When you are ill and gloomy, Sore, with Sour Stomach, Pain in the Body and Limbs, Yellow Face, Skin and Tongue, a hot Cough, Dyspepsia, Diarrhoea and other ailments, use Dr. Flogg's Improved Liver and Stomach Pad and be cured.

One beef, pork and mutton every week at the well regulated of Marion Jackson.

There is just in receipt of choice Tobacco of all grades, which will sell cheaper at retail than elsewhere. It could be bought in bulk at a wholesale, and another price for 100 lbs. at 10 cents per pound. Go to see him.

Persons camping in town over night are requested to stop in D. E. Smook & Co's yard where they will find good accommodations for themselves and horses.

"BLACK-DRAUGHT" makes chills and fever impossible.

D. E. Smook has returned with the finest lot of clothing ever offered in this market.

"WINE OF CARDUI" for Ladies only.

For sale by Dr. J. G. Wannamaker.

The drug store where you can get your money's worth is at Dr. J. G. Wannamaker, Orangeburg, C. H. S. C. We buy those at the best, and sell it at low prices, hence, if you want any thing in the drug line, call and see us. We keep a full line of hair and tooth brushes, toilet soaps, perfumery, sponges, patent medicines, make prescriptions a specialty; will be found at our post, day or night.

Take "BLACK-DRAUGHT" and you will never be bilious.

For sale by Dr. J. G. Wannamaker

It is found at last! Something new under the sun. A new era is dawning upon woman. Hitherto she has been called upon to suffer the ills of mankind and her own besides. The frequent and distressing irregularities peculiar to her sex have long been to her the "direful spring of woes, a number 1." In the names of the rich and hovel of poverty, a poor woman has been the constant yet patient victim of a thousand ills unknown to man, and without a remedy. "Oh, Lord, how long!" is the agony of our sorrowful sister, but now the hour of her redemption is come. She will suffer no more, for Bradford's Female Regulator, "Woman's Best Friend," is for sale by Dr. A. C. Dukes, and also by Dr. J. G. Wannamaker.

Prepared by Dr. J. T. Radfield, Atlanta, Ga; price, $1.50 per bottle.

A trial package of "BLACK-DRAUGHT" free of charge at

For sale by Dr. J. G. Wannamaker.

[Read what Gen. G. T. (Tige) Anderson says.]

Messrs. Hanchin & Brog Gentlemen—I have been a great sufferer from neuralgia—the attacks lasting for days. I had tried every known remedy without being relieved. In my last attack I tried your "Neuralgine," and in a short time was perfectly cured. It is a consolation to know that I have at last a remedy that controls this painful disease, and I am cheerfully recommending it to all who suffer as I do.

G. T. ANDERSON, Chief of Police, Atlanta, April 18, 1880.

LOUISVILLE, KY., May 3, 1879. Messrs. Hanchin & Brog, Atlanta, Ga: Gentlemen—For sixteen years I have diligently sought for some certain, speedy action for neuralgia and acute rheumatism, and at last your "Neuralgine" proves I have at last found it and I am sure in fully endorsing your remedy as possessing every quality claimed for it as a specific for sick headache and neuralgia.

Respectfully yours, THOS. E. POWELL.

For sale by Dr. A. C. Dukes, and also by Dr. J. G. Wannamaker.

No head-ache or back-ache for ladies who drink "WINE OF CARDUI."
